

GOALMILLS

30-DAY SPORTS MEDIA EMPLOYEE TRAINING CURRICULUM

Program: GoalMills Sports Media Academy

Duration: 30 working days

Daily stand-up: 5:00 PM–5:30 PM WAT

Meeting: Google Meet

Training model: Learn → Create → Publish → Submit → Review → Improve

Primary objective: Produce staff who can independently research, write, optimize, design, publish, distribute, and analyse professional sports content.

1. STAFF TRAINING POLICY

This is a production-based training program, not a reading program.

Every working day, staff must:

Study → Create → Publish → Submit links → Attend review → Correct mistakes

No staff member receives credit simply for reading the lesson.

Daily minimum

Every employee must complete:

- Assigned lesson
 - Assigned research
 - Assigned content
 - Required publication
 - Daily report
 - Link submission
 - Stand-up attendance

2. CORE TRAINING CURRICULUM

The curriculum uses the previously developed GoalMills tutorial as its foundation.

Part 20	Sports Video Content Production	✓

Part 21 GoalMills Newsroom Operations

Part 3 is the only excluded module because it is technical/developer-oriented.

3. DAILY WORKING SCHEDULE

Use this schedule as the standard training-day timetable.

Time	Activity
8:00–8:30	Newsroom briefing/research
8:30–10:00	Lesson/study
10:00–12:00	Content production
12:00–1:00	First publishing window

4:45–5:00	Daily report/link submission
5:00–5:30	Google Meet stand-up
5:30 onward	Corrections/next-day preparation

During major matchdays, the editor may modify these times.

4. DAILY STAND-UP

5:00 PM–5:30 PM WAT

5:00–5:05

Attendance.

5:05–5:15

Staff reports.

Each employee answers:

1. What did I study?
2. What did I create?
3. What did I publish?
4. What was my biggest challenge?

5:15–5:25

Admin/editor feedback.

Review:

- Best article
- Best headline
- Best graphic
- Best social post

 3. Best SEO article
 4. Best headline
 5. Best graphic

6. Best social campaign
 7. Best short video
 8. Best YouTube video
 9. Analytics report
 10. Personal improvement report

7. FINAL EXAM SCORE

Skill	Weight
Journalism	15%
Writing	15%
Research/fact checking	15%
SEO	10%
Social media	10%
Graphic design	10%
Video	10%
Publishing discipline	5%
Analytics	5%
Teamwork/reporting	5%
TOTAL	100%

8. CERTIFICATION

90–100

🏆 GoalMills Certified Sports Media Professional — Advanced

Can operate independently.

80–89

GoalMills Certified Sports Media Professional

Can operate with limited supervision.

70–79

GoalMills Certified Junior Sports Media Professional

Can perform routine assignments but needs editorial review.

60–69

Training Extension Required

Below 60

Not Ready for Independent Publishing

9. CONTENT APPROVAL POLICY AFTER TRAINING

Not everything should automatically go live.

Routine content

Employee may publish after certification.

Editor approval required

Breaking news
Transfer rumours
Injury claims
Death-related stories
Legal allegations
Controversial claims
Financial claims
Sensitive player stories
Copyright-sensitive material

10. COPYRIGHT RULE

This must be part of staff training.

Staff must never assume:

"It's on Google, therefore we can use it."

or:

"I downloaded it from another sports page, therefore it's free."

or:

"I added our logo, therefore it's ours."

Images, videos, music and other creative works can be copyrighted.

YouTube provides official copyright guidance:

YouTube Copyright Help

For third-party video, staff should use properly licensed material or approved embedding where appropriate.

Do not download and re-upload broadcast footage without appropriate rights.

11. GOALMILLS SOURCE POLICY

Every serious article should maintain a source trail.

Example:

ARTICLE:
Arsenal injury update

PRIMARY SOURCE:
Club statement

SECONDARY SOURCE:
Reputable sports publication

EDITOR:
Staff Name

VERIFIED:
YES

DATE:
27/08/2026

12. GOALMILLS CORRECTION POLICY

If an employee discovers an error:

Step 1

Notify editor immediately.

Step 2

Correct the article/post.

Step 3

If material, add an appropriate correction/update.

Step 4

Record the mistake.

Step 5

Explain how the error occurred.

The objective isn't to punish honest mistakes.

The objective is to prevent repeated mistakes.

13. GOALMILLS MISTAKE DATABASE

Create:

GOALMILLS EDITORIAL MISTAKE DATABASE

Categories:

Incorrect score
Wrong player
Wrong team
Wrong date
False transfer
Unverified claim
Fake quote
Wrong statistic
Grammar
Poor headline
SEO error
Copyright error
Bad graphic
Incorrect caption
Broken link
Duplicate story

Every significant mistake should become a future training example.

14. GOALMILLS BEST WORK LIBRARY

Create:

GOALMILLS CONTENT LIBRARY

01 Best Articles
02 Best Headlines
03 Best SEO
04 Best Graphics
05 Best Instagram
06 Best Facebook
07 Best X
08 Best TikTok
09 Best YouTube
10 Best Videos

This becomes the company's internal reference library.

15. DAILY STAFF REPORT

Use this exact format:

17. WEEKLY PERFORMANCE REVIEW

Every seventh working day, management should calculate:

Average score
Number of articles
Number of social posts
Number of graphics
Number of videos
Correction count
Average engagement
Best-performing content
Worst-performing content

Then answer:

Is the employee improving?

18. EMPLOYEE PROGRESSION

Days 1–7

Observe + practice

100% editorial supervision.

Days 8–14

Produce

High supervision.

Days 15–21

Distribute

Moderate supervision.

Days 22–26

Optimize

Light supervision.

Days 27–30

Operate

Independent production.

19. THE CONTENT PRODUCTION STANDARD

Every piece of GoalMills content should pass:

BEFORE PUBLISHING

- ☐ Is it accurate?
- ☐ Is the source reliable?
- ☐ Is the headline truthful?
- ☐ Is the article useful?
- ☐ Is the grammar acceptable?
- ☐ Is SEO properly implemented?
- ☐ Is the image/video legally usable?
- ☐ Is the branding correct?
- ☐ Is the social caption appropriate?
- ☐ Are all links working?

If the answer is NO to a critical question:

Do not publish.

20. STAFF CONTENT ENGINE

Employees should eventually think like this:

21. WHAT A SUCCESSFUL GRADUATE SHOULD BE ABLE TO DO

After 30 days, the employee should independently be capable of:

Journalism

- Find stories
- Research
- Verify
- Write
- Edit
- Attribute sources
- Handle quotes
- Distinguish rumours from facts

SEO

- Identify keywords
- Understand search intent
- Optimize articles
- Write metadata
- Build internal links
- Optimize images

Social

- Create platform-specific posts
- Write captions
- Create short videos
- Manage comments
- Build engagement
- Track performance

Design

- Create sports graphics
- Matchday graphics
- Player graphics
- Statistics graphics
- Social cards
- YouTube thumbnails

Video

- Write scripts
- Record narration

- Edit videos
- Add captions
- Create Shorts
- Create Reels
- Create TikToks
- Create YouTube videos

Operations

- Follow deadlines
- Submit links
- Attend stand-ups
- Receive criticism professionally
- Correct mistakes
- Analyze performance
- Work independently

22. PERMANENT GOALMILLS NEWSROOM WORKFLOW

After the 30-day training, this becomes the employee's normal operating system:

16:00
ENGAGEMENT + ANALYTICS
16:45
DAILY REPORT
17:00
NEWSROOM STAND-UP
17:30
CORRECTIONS / NEXT-DAY PREPARATION

23. RECOMMENDED OFFICIAL LEARNING RESOURCES

Staff should bookmark these resources and use them throughout the program.

24. THE MOST IMPORTANT MANAGEMENT RULE

Don't measure the staff only by how many articles they publish.

Measure:

QUALITY

ACCURACY

CONSISTENCY

TRAFFIC

ENGAGEMENT

GROWTH

TEAMWORK

A staff member producing 10 poor articles is less valuable than someone producing 4 excellent articles that consistently attract readers.

25. FINAL GOAL OF THE 30 DAYS

At the end of this program, GoalMills should not merely have employees who have studied sports media.

It should have employees who have already spent 30 days operating a miniature newsroom.

The progression is:

DAY 1

"I am learning."

DAY 7

"I can create an article."

DAY 14

"I can publish and distribute content."

DAY 20

"I can create articles + graphics + video."

DAY 25

"I can analyze and improve content."

DAY 27

"I can operate independently."

DAY 30

"I can function as a GoalMills sports media professional."

That is the standard I would use for onboarding every new GoalMills editorial/social-media employee going forward.
